Cap and Gown

Originally there were no dormitories at Sewanee, and the students resided with widows or unmarried women who maintained homes on the Mountain. There were from sixteen to thirty boys in each house, and it was the idea of the founders to have a lady pour coffee for the boys every morning and to spread the influence of a Southern home.

Some of these early women are well remembered by old graduates for their charm and kindness. There was Mrs. Fanny M. Preston, of old Hoffman and then of St. Luke's; Miss Lillie Green, daughter of the Bishop of Mississippi, was one of the most highly regarded, as was Mrs. Tucker, mother of our beloved Johnnie Tucker, who is the matron of Tuckaway today, Mrs. Tucker was at old Palmetto. Mrs. Elmore, whose home was right in the center of the campus, Mrs. Florence Barnwell, Miss Maria Porcher, who built and for many years lived in Magnolia, are others who mothered and cared for the students. Mrs. Mary Eggleston devoted much of her time at Magnolia to give "her boys" the best in food.

Later on dormitories evolved out of these early homes, and no one can estimate the beneficial influence these women exerted. What was said of Mrs. Preston is applicable to all of this early group. Her "... benediction of sympathy is remembered by students of the seventies as well as of 1930."

Thus, it is that the matrons of Sewanee today have a rich heritage to live up to, and they have not failed to further the famous Sewanee traditions. Miss Johnnie's Tuckaway meals are legend; the Hoffman boys will always remember pleasant moments spent with Miss Polly over a cup of tea, while those at Cannon will cherish memories of gracious Miss Deedee. Dormitory life at Sewanee Inn would be sadly incomplete without Aunt Hickey's presence, and Mrs. Anderson at Johnson Hall and Mrs. Neblett at St. Luke's are all equally loved and respected by the students who in turn mean so much to them. Because of the unique and important position the matrons have in Sewanee life, it is with pleasure that we dedicate this 1942 Cap and Gown to them and may we always have such lovely Southern ladies in our dormitories.

A deep spirituality, a profound intellect, and a masterful eloquence . . . Bishop Mikell loved and worked for Sewanee with all his heart and soul. His memory is a benediction cherished by all Sewanee men.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

VICE-CHANCELLOR EMERITUS

Dr. Finney, one of Sewanee's most devoted and loyal figures, was Vice-Chancellor of the University from 1922 to 1938. He has been a regent since 1913, and has also served as president of the Associated Alumni of the University of the South. A very learned man, Dr. Finney is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Gamma Mu, and Omicron Delta Kappa. He has generously and unselfishly devoted much of his time and services in working for the University and is in no small way responsible for Sewanee's prominent position in education today.

V I C E - C H A N C E L L O R

Dr. Guerry and his gracious wife.

Without a highly competent and courageous guiding force, no organization can run smoothly, and just such a force is our Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Guerry. Not only is he an unselfish leader and efficient organizer, but he is also a true friend and real inspiration to every student. His alert mind is ever planning new and wonderful things for Sewanee, and his forceful leadership has advanced our school to the fore in the realm of education. Under his careful guidance and through his ceaseless and untiring efforts Sewanee has reached higher and higher toward the perfection which is our goal.

We at Sewanee consider ourselves fortunate in having such an able adviser and teacher as Dr. Baker. He uses his keen sense of humor and sound scholarship to wisely administer University affairs; in supervising student activities his tact, impartiality, common sense, and understanding of young men have endeared him to all Sewanee men. An invaluable friend as well as a trusted leader, he gives unsparingly of his time and strength for the well-being of Sewanee men, and his sympathetic assistance and generous cooperation ever inspires us toward higher ideals.

THE REV. FLEMING JAMES

B.A., M.A., Ph.D., University of Pennsylvania

Dean of the School of Theology and Professor of Old Testament Language and Interpretation.

A deep spirituality, a forceful personality, a profound and impeccable scholarship, and a sympathetic understanding of their problems—these are only a few of the rare qualities which have so lastingly endeared Dean Fleming James to the students of Sewanee's theological seminary.

Only two years in the Dean's chair, Dr. James has already shown promise of making the theological seminary on this campus one of the best in the country. Last fall the school enjoyed a record enrollment of thirty-nine students, and it is generally recognized that the academic standard under Dean James's leadership is much higher than ever before.

As the son of a theological professor, the Dean's training for his life's work began in his infancy. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1896 and his M.A. the following year. In 1899 Dr. James received the Ph.D. degree from the same institution at an unbelievably early age. After his graduation from theological seminary Dr. James spent four years in the China mission field and six years in diocesan missionary work. He spent the next nine years as rector of one of the finest parishes in northern New Jersey, and served for nineteen years as Professor of Old Testament in the Berkeley Divinity School before coming to Sewanee. Dr. James's brilliant record of service to the Church includes membership on several social service committees, the chairmanship of the diocesan Forward Movement Commission, membership on the Board of Examining Chaplains, and participation in many other social and economic activities.

A widely-known and respected Old Testament scholar, Dr. James has had two books published by the publishing house of Charles Scribner's Sons.

President Ashby Sutherland and Secretary Armistead Selden conduct an important meeting.

Order of Gownsmen

To a stranger seeing Sewanee for the first time nothing will surprise him more than the sight of a figure clad in an academic gown strolling on the campus. Thus is an outsider introduced to a member of the Order of Gownsmen, one of the most unique organizations to be found on any campus in America. The Order of Gownsmen is composed of all graduate students, theological students, and such students in the College as have attained a Junior or Senior rating. Gownsmen are distinguished by the academic gown, and enjoy certain privileges not open to undergraduates. The new Gownsmen are installed yearly at a special service held on Founder's Day the tenth of October. Upon being invested with the gown the members must wear their gowns to all classes and chapel service.

The Order is the governing body of the students and cooperates with the authorities in guiding all student problems. All student organizations and student committees derive their charters from the Order and the standards of student conduct are set by it. The Gown has always been worn by the students of the University and it symbolizes that high and pure learning which is the ideal of the University. The insignia carries with it the definite privileges and responsibilities and is awarded only to upperclassmen who are worthy of merit because of diligence in the pursuit of their studies. To the Order of Gownsmen is entrusted the maintenance of student traditions and time-honored customs of Sewanee.

The officers of the Order of Gownsmen for the year 1941-'42 are: Ashby Sutherland, president; John Ransom, vice-president; and Armistead Selden, secretary.

A vote on committee members is recorded by the presiding officers.

PROCTORS

Proctors are those students, chosen by the administration upon the recommendation of the retiring proctors, whose duty it is to maintain order and to enforce discipline in their dormitories—often a trying and arduous task. In addition to their dormitory duties the proctors check chapel attendance and assist in general student discipline. It is indeed an honor to be chosen as proctor but with the job goes a heavy responsibility and only those who are competent and who hold the respect of the students are chosen. Ben Cameron of Tuckaway Inn is this year's Head Proctor. Other proctors are: Jack Allin of Hoffman Hall, James Vardell of Johnson Hall, Armistead Selden of Cannon Hall, Jack Wetzels of Sewanee Inn, Frank Walker of Van Ness Hall, Sterling Garrard of Ambler House, and Tracy Lamar of St. Luke's Hall.

HONOR COUNCIL

Living in a war-torn and belligerent world, we of today are watching those fine principles of honor and integrity being put to the acid test. With men and whole nations showing an utter disregard for the ideals of decency and fair play, we here at Sewanee appreciate now more than ever before those principles and Christian ideals for which the University stands.

Sewanee can always be proud of her sons, for they have been taught the true significance of the word "Honor," they have seen the "Honor Code" at its best, and they have been an integral part of the traditional "Honor System."

The safeguarding of this cherished tradition is placed in the hands of the students and it is the duty of the "Honor Council," elected by the student body, to see that the "Honor Code," which is signed by every Sewanee man, is never forgotten or marred in any way.

Members of the Honor Council this year are: Nagel Haskin, Ted Bratton, Wallace Welsh, Brooks Cotten, Frank Greer, George Cracraft, and John Ball.

PHI BETA KAPPA

Phi Beta Kappa, the first college fraternity in the United States, was founded at William and Mary in 1776. Until 1826 it had all the features which characterize the modern college fraternity; after this date, however, the society changed its character by becoming non-secret and purely honorary. The prestige of Phi Beta Kappa is so great that its golden key badge is the most coveted award in American college life.

Members of the faculty and administration who belong to this society include: Dr. Bruton, Dr. Baker, Mr. Dugan, Major Gass, Dr. Guerry, Rev. Hall, Dr. James, Mr. Kayden, Dr. Knickerbocker, Major MacKellar, Dr. Petry, Mr. Thorogood, Dr. Ware, Dr. Yerkes, and Mr. Freeman.

Students who are members are: Arnold, Collins, Cotten, Elmore, Edwards, Garrard, Jackson, Knickerbocker, Marks, Stockell, Sutherland, Turlington, Ware, Yochem, and Zeigler.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa is an honorary fraternity which recognizes leadership in campus activities by election to its membership. It holds the place in extra-curricular activities which Phi Beta Kappa holds in purely scholastic achievement. Membership to this fraternity is one of the highest honors attainable by a Sewanee student.

Members of the Alpha Alpha Circle of O. D. K. include Billy Coleman, President; Ashby Sutherland, Ben Cameron, Armistead Selden, Dick Corry, John Roberts, and John Yochem. Faculty members are Vice-Chancellor Guerry, Dean Baker, Major Henry Gass, R. B. Davis, and T. S. Long, Secretary-Treasurer.

BLUE KEY

Blue Key is a national honorary fraternity to which students are elected on the basis of their ability to serve the best interests of the University and the community. For the past two years Blue Key has taken the lead in drives to increase the enrollment of the University, and during the present war emergency it has taken as its chief program the collection of books for the soldiers' library at Camp Forrest. Its membership from the faculty includes: Dr. Guerry, Mr. Griswold, Dr. Scott, Mr. Hall, Mr. Hodges, and Major McKellar. Student members are: William Coleman, President; Ben Cameron, Currin Gass, Frank Greer, Louis Lawson, Graham Roberts, John B. Roberts, Armistead Selden, Ashby Sutherland, Wallace Welch, Richard Corry, Robert Turner, Caldwell Marks, Brooks Cotten, John Yochem, Frank Walker, and Jack Wetzel.

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

Founded in 1922 by the members of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi, then resident on the Mountain, the Scholarship Society strives to further intellectual pursuits and the ideals of philosophy as embodied in its motto "Adspira." Those eligible for election to membership are gownsmen who have maintained a scholastic average of eighty-five for four consecutive semesters. Annually the Society holds an open meeting at which a guest speaker addresses the members. After each semester a cup is presented by the Society to the fraternity with the highest scholastic average.

Bayly Turlington is President, Stanhope Elmore, Vice-President, and Dean Baker, Secretary-Treasurer of the organization. The membership includes:

Clinton Arnold, Rogers Beasley, Ben Cameron, William Coleman, David Collins, Brooks Cotten, Charles Dickson, George Garis, Sterling Garrard, Currin Gass, Frank Greer, Harold Jackson, Trapier Jervey, Ferris Ketcham, Macon Kirkman, Charles Knickerbocker, David Lockhart, Caldwell Marks, Hilliard Miller, Auburn Moore, Fred Morton, W. L. Quesenberry, John Roberts, Graham Roberts, Henry Seaman, Armistead Selden, Grenville Seibels, James Sirmans, Mercer Stockell, Ashby Sutherland, Tom Ware, John Yochem, Nick Zeigler. Faculty members are: Dr. Guerry, Dr. Baker, Dr. Ware, Mr. Davis, Mr. Mackellar, Major Gass, Mr. Kayden, General Jervey, Mr. Freeman, Dr. Knickerbocker, Dr. McDonald, Dr. Petry, Dr. Frierson, Dr. McGrady, Mr. Hall, Mr. Long, Dr. Bruton, Dr. Scott, Mr. Martin, Mr. Thorogood, Dr. Govan, Mr. Moore.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Pan-Hellenic Council is composed of two members of the Order of Gownsmen from each fraternity. The purpose of this organization is to control and regulate inter-fraternity activities. One of the outstanding social events of the year was a dance on October 25, sponsored by the Pan-Hellenic Council. Each fraternity shared in the expense of this dance in proportion to its membership.

STUDENT VESTRY

A banner activity of the Student Vestry this year was a Christmas Candle Light and Manger service held for the benefit of the needy on the Thursday before Christmas. This is a new thing in Sewanee and it is hoped by the Vestry that it may become an annual affair.

Of service to the students in general was the purchase of fifty new prayer books and hymnals for our chapel. The Vestry engaged the following speakers for services this year: The Right Reverend Messrs. Parsons of the diocese of California, and Maxon of the diocese of Tennessee; The Reverend Messrs. Kellerman of South Pittsburg, and Thomas Thrasher of Columbia.

This year's members include: Bob Turner, Senior Warden; Louis Lawson, Junior Warden; George Perot, Secretary; Henry Prior, Treasurer; Doyle Smith, Jim Vardell, Billy Beach, Berkley Grimbail, Moultrie McIntosh, and Kenneth Mac Gowan.

The Vestry's aim is to promote religious interest among the students on the Mountain.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club is composed of all students who purchase membership cards to it at the beginning of the school year. The money thus taken in is used to insure the success of dances at Sewanee. Students who are members of the German Club are admitted to all dances at a sizable reduction in the cost of tickets. Through the existence of this organization the University has been able to consistently present topnotch bands at the dances. This year's high point was the Mid-Winter set for which Harry James' fine name band played.

Mr. Griswold acts as faculty adviser to the club and is directly responsible for much of its success. The executive committee of the German Club is elected each year and for 1941-1942 is composed of Billy Coleman, President; Frank Greer, Treasurer, and Billy Nicholson, Secretary.

SOPHERIM

Sopherim, that word fully describes one's literary ability at Sewanee. Membership is obtained when a student in the upper classes submits an original paper to the organization for consideration. The society is composed of five groups: translation, poetry, fictional prose, non-fictional prose, and drama. Members of these groups hold separate meetings and report a program for criticism to the organization as a whole at meetings held monthly. The achievements of members are published at the close of the school year in the Sopherim Magazine.

Student membership this year includes: E. U. Zeigler, W. Asger, C. Gass, T. K. Ware, B. Turlington, R. Corry, A. Sutherland, J. Ransom, C. Knickerbocker, D. Ciannella, D. Collins, J. Allin, J. Solomon, H. Havens, A. Joslin, G. Seibels, G. Scarbrough, Ben Cameron.

DEBATE COUNCIL

The Debate Council, under the able guidance of Major W. H. MacKellar, is composed of Selden, President; McKeown, Secretary; Seaman, Fort, Ash, Beach, Vanzant, Harrison, Cate, and Jacobs. Meetings are held once a week.

The questions to be debated this year are: One, Resolved that all labor unions should be regulated by the Federal Government; two, Resolved, that the Federal Government should own and operate the railroads.

The council has entered into two National Contests. One conducted by the American Economic Foundation, in which the prize is $1,000.00, and another, by the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, the prize which is a conducted trip over South America.

PI GAMMA MU

Pi Gamma Mu is a national Social Science Fraternity founded in 1924. Election to membership is limited to Juniors, Seniors, and faculty members, and is on the basis of high achievement in the field of social science.

Aspiring to hold the position in social science that is held by Phi Beta Kappa in the field of the arts, Pi Gamma Mu instills the ideals of scholarship and the scientific attitude and method in the analysis of all social problems. Various speakers are sponsored throughout the year. Also the fraternity has many times polled student opinion on several issues.

Messrs. Kayden, Thorogood, Dugan, and Govan are faculty members; in academia are T. K. Ware, President; Armistead Selden, Secretary-Treasurer; E. N. Zeigler, S. B. Turlington, Stanhope Elmore, Graham Roberts, Mercer Stockell, Ashby Sutherland, Frank Walker, and David Collins.

WAITERS' UNION

Sewanee's branch of organized labor is the ultimate in labor unions. The leader and boss of this group is Iron Man Lawson, who at times likens himself to the former dictator of the CIO, John L. Lewis. Lawson, known to his intimates as "Fluff the Wolf Man," is responsible for figuring out the waiting schedule and seeing that each waiter meets his obligations. Besides being severe with his subordinates in the waiters' union, Lawson is also severe with those humble patrons of Magnolia Hall who arrive late for chow. However, Lawson is also kind, he sees to it that his best friend, Willoughby, does not miss more than two squares a day. Lawson's cronies, J. Vardell, Cotten, Diffenbaugh, Allin, and S. Lee, are given the privilege of head-waiting two or three times a week. Included in the privileged membership of the white jackets' union of Mag, are the following well known and highly esteemed gentlemen of Sewanee: Allin, Blakeslee, Cage, Calder, Cotten, Conry, Ball, Diffenbaugh, Cianella, Eby, Ezechel, Grimbail, Campbell, Hughes, Peck, Williams, Waller, Kilpatrick, J. Vardell, M. McIntosh, S. Lee, Goelitz, and Vanzant.

PURPLE MASQUE

This dramatic organization of Sewanee presented during January, "Whistling in the Dark," which was later followed by a musicale, "Sewaneeana," presented in conjunction with the choir under Mr. McConnell's direction.

The Masque plans to wind up the season with several one or two-act plays with an original by Mr. Andrew Lytle. All plays are produced with the cooperation of the Public Speaking Department, headed by Major MacKellar, and are directed by Mr. Griswold, the faculty sponsor.

Front Row, Left to Right: Mr. McConnell, Cianella, Jenkins, Sirmans, H. Prior, Vernon, Harrison, McIntosh, Rev. Hall, and Selden. Second Row, Left to Right: Gresley, Grimball, Ross, Perot, Jackson, Ransom, and Lobeck. Third Row, Left to Right: Joslin, Haven, Reid, Zeigler, Gray, Baird, Stimel, Fairleigh, and Child. Fourth Row, Left to Right: Hoskins, Scott, Morton, Barrett, Hawkins, Vreeland, and Wagner. Back Row, Left to Right: Bardin, Donaldson, W. Cameron, Whitfield, Quesenberry, and Ludlow.

UNIVERSITY CHOIR

This year the choir is composed of thirty-five voices. By having frequent rehearsals it has been able to produce music that has meant very much to the chapel services. Through the untiring efforts of Mr. Paul S. McConnell the choir presented the "Hymn of Praise" by Felix Mendelsohn at a special service before the Christmas holidays. Plans are now being made for the presentation of the "Seven Last Words" by DuBois at Easter time. In a more secular capacity the choir is going to give a Sewanee version of the light opera the "Mikado," by Gilbert and Sullivan. This production is scheduled for the spring term.

ACOLYTE GUILD

The Guild this year, along with serving its ultimate purpose of adding dignity and beauty to the chapel services, has met with the chaplain once each month to discuss subjects and problems vital to the life of a Christian and his church. This has raised the value of the Guild's contribution both to the student body and to its individual members. The membership has been increased over previous years and includes:

"S" CLUB

All Sewanee athletes who earn a varsity letter are eligible for membership in the "S" Club. This organization aims chiefly at promoting interest in athletics at Sewanee and inducing all students to participate.

The club sponsored an "S" Day on March 14 this year on which date they held their annual dance. At this dance, open to all students, senior lettermen were presented certificates of achievement, and a trophy was presented to President Johnny Roberts as the outstanding senior athlete. The "S" Club also acts as hosts to all outside schools participating in athletic contests on the Mountain.

Uncle Sam interfered somewhat in the "S" Club executive this year, and it was necessary to elect three presidents, the first two, Jimmy Lyle and Wallace Welch, being called into the army. John Roberts was elected to succeed the latter. Frank Walker is Vice-President, and Dick Corry is Secretary-Treasurer.

FLYING SCHOOL

This year is proving a success in the expansion and development of civilian flying at Sewanee. The University Airport, erected and maintained by the University, is closer by two-thirds than the original site of pilot training in Manchester; this advantage, coupled with the addition of three new aircraft and more efficient maintenance facilities to the Sewanee program, has greatly enlarged the value of flight training in the University curriculum.

Besides the C. P. T. activity, a unit of the Civil Air Patrol is being organized, in which those students who hold private licenses are given ample opportunity to train and participate. Graduates from the C. P. T. P. can thus gain practical experience while at the same time they contribute their services to the Civilian Defense program.

Because of the professed preference on the part of the military air forces for C. P. T. graduates as flying cadets, there is every indication that this program will occupy an increasingly important role in the University's effort to contribute to national defense. Flight training will be continued during the summer session for the benefit of freshmen, among others, who could not meet the educational requirements during the second semester of the current school year. Sewanee has added its voice to the national slogan, "KEEP 'EM FLYING!"

Considering the headaches involved, time spent preparing and arranging layouts, getting photographs, securing advertisements from harried merchants throughout the state, the 1942 "Cap and Gown" should be an unrivaled masterpiece; the staff is not quite so demanding, however; they only hope that they have presented an accurate, attractive, and interesting account of life on the Mountain during the past school year. If student opinion is favorable, we will be adequately repaid, for the dominant aim of this year's staff has been to present a yearbook that pleases everyone.

So while leafing through your 1942 "Cap and Gown," remember the inconveniences involved in organizing an annual with the printer and engraver not easily accessible for consultation; remember that Sewanee weather has often been very uncooperative in our photography work; and above all, remember that this has been an "all-student" publication in which almost the whole job has been accomplished by some inexperienced and bewildered journalists. But it is, as we have stressed, a sincere effort to please you.

Editor John Yochem was fortunate in having a very competent staff to aid him. Charles Dickson was Associate Editor and Organization Manager. Bill Moise did art work and assumed the large task of Sports Editor. David Lynch's shutter work supplements that of the professional photographer. Other members of the editorial staff are: Minter Aldridge, Ham Caldwell, Clarence Edmondson, Frank Greer, Thomas Harrison, David Hughes, Allen Joslin, Sperry Lee, Douglass McQueen, George Perot, John Roberts, Stuart Ruth, Gren Seibels, Bayly Turlington, Jack Wetzel, Jim Williams, Silas Williams, and George Albert Woods.

Armistead Selden, as Business Manager, fulfilled his promise to exceed his quota of advertisements despite the fact that several important contracts were not renewed because of existing business conditions. Don Palmer is Assistant Business Manager, and Chuck Blakeslee, Clarence Edmondson, David Lynch, Billy Nelson, and John Ransom complete the staff.

Members of the staff hold a discussion of problems concerning the 1942 annual.

Sewanee Purple

The Sewanee Purple, official organ of the students of the University of the South, has a large circulation among residents of Sewanee, alumni, and parents of students, as well as among students themselves.

The Purple at the beginning of the 1941-'42 academic year adopted a new format in an attempt to present a livelier face to its readers. A slightly larger type-form was put into use, and ordinary newsprint paper replaced the magazine variety which had been used for several years. The new format appears to be a success, and will be continued at least to the end of the present year.

The Purple also set out to give a complete coverage of Sewanee sports, both intramural and intercollegiate. More interesting coverage by means of pictures was also attempted. An outstanding issue in the fall was that containing a two-page spread of pictures of the various activities in connection with the fiftieth playing of the Sewanee-Vanderbilt game.

Laying a basis for a newspaper taking an active interest in students affairs, by conducting campaigns such as that against supposed profiteering among Sewanee cleaners, has been another activity of this year's Purple.

Bill Moise is sports editor, and his staff includes Bill Quesenberry, Charles Dickson, Allan Kilpatrick, Stanley Hauser, and Tom Callahan.

Circulation Manager David Collins is aided by Sam Grier, Jim Paul, Claude Cunningham, Eddie Carpenter, Domenic Ciannella, James Vaught, Shelby Harbison, and Sheldon Hoag.

Part of the "Purple" staff swap ideas for a new edition of the school paper.

With the fiftieth anniversary of the first Vanderbilt-Sewanee game, played in 1891, as the keynote of the fall program, the Purple Tiger football team went through one of the most peculiar seasons in many years. From a publicity standpoint, all eyes focussed on Nashville on Saturday, November 8, when a group of distinguished men gathered for the commemoration of a half-century of amicable athletic relations between the two institutions.

When Sewanee's varsity squad reported to Jenks Gillem on September 1, its ranks were sadly depleted. Some fourteen Tiger ball players had either been drafted, or had joined the army or navy, or had become engaged in defense industries. While most of these men were backs, the most severe losses were "Primo" Wiley, 210-pound senior who had been switched to tackle after a two-year tenure at end; Gene Pierce, a rugged guard who played defensive center and was a keen diagnostician of enemy plays; Sam McCutchen, 205-pound center, and hefty Woody Dunn, labelled as one of the best wingback prospects ever to hit the mountain.

Loss of Eaves Crippling

Another crippling blow was the loss of Line Coach Joel Eaves, who was ordered to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, for the duration of the emergency. Coach Eaves's place was filled by Chaplain George Hall, guard on the Sewanee teams of 1932, 1933, and 1934. Of the twenty-six men who reported on September 1, only five were backs, and had not Cumberland University given up football, Sewanee would have been in a bad way.

Again using the single-wing form of attack, the Tigers opened the season with a thrilling 20-19 win over a favored Washington & Lee team. With fifty-five seconds left to go, Captain Earl Bearden threw a twenty-yard pass to Left End Frank Walker on the two, Walker going over for the tying score. Bearden then place-kicked the winning point.

Disaster Strikes

Disaster struck the Tigers just before the Davidson game when Bearden injured his knee in practice and was incapacitated for the rest of the season. Just how severe the loss really was did not come out until the season unfolded. Bearden was an excellent passer, a good runner, and a fine kicker, and his loss was irreparable. Sewanee fans were pleasantly surprised, then, when the Tigers, laboring under this handicap, defeated a strong Davidson team, 7-0, in Chattanooga.

In the next two games the Tigers suffered two defeats that were only indicators of Bearden's value. A great Southwestern team caught the Tigers at their mental low and, with the aid of their great back Kenny Holland, administered a

Stars of '91 Honored

Then came the traditional game with Vanderbilt. Amid much color, with a radio program on Friday night when former Sewanee and Vanderbilt stars and Miss Johnnie Tucker were present, and with a pre-game luncheon on Saturday, five members of the 1891 team were the guests of honor. Those present included Ellwood Wilson, captain of the team, from Knowlton, Quebec; A. S. and W. D. Cleveland, of Houston, Texas; A. R. Shepherd, of Alexandria, Virginia, and A. G. Blacklock, of New Orleans. Major W. H. MacKellar, referee of the first game, was the honorary referee for the fiftieth game, and called the two captains to the center of the field for the flip of the coin.

Ham Caldwell warms up to enter the Vandy scrap.

Pre-game ceremonies for the golden anniversary Sewanee-Vanderbilt series.

Commodores Tally Early

As always, the Tiger played an inspired game, but the Commodores jammed over three tallies in the first quarter before the fans had scarcely been settled in their seats. Then a bitter Tiger resistance evidenced itself, and the Black and Gold was held scoreless for the remainder of the game. Sewanee's only real opportunity for scoring came late in the game, when Frank Walker took one of Johnny Roberts' long heaves for a touchdown, but he stepped out on the three while attempting to score, and the boys were unable to crack the powerful Vandy line.

The season concluded with severe defeats at the hands of Chattanooga and The Citadel, but in both of these games the undermanned squad gave a good account of themselves.

Kudos to Johnny Roberts

When the kudos was being passed out by the nation's sportswriters, the remarkable performance of Johnny Roberts was not overlooked. Roberts played every minute of every game in the seven-game schedule at three different positions, and handled all the kicking chores after Bearden's injury. In the Citadel game, Roberts reached the heights with his kicking when he averaged 46.5 yards per kick.

At the annual football banquet at Dr. Guerry's, Frank Walker was elected captain for 1942, and three alternates—Graham Roberts, Walter Stokes, and Mel Goad—were named. Other letter winners included Park Owen, Ross Apperson, Wallace Welch, Dick McCauley, Ham Caldwell, Jerry Atkinson, Orland Smitherman, Marion Kerr, Ed Tipton, Eph Kirby-Smith, Dud Kizer, Johnny Roberts, Joe Shaw, Alternate Captain Jimmie Lyle, Dick Corry, Bob Ames, Ryall Smith, Captain Earl Bearden, Billy Lloyd, Harry Logue, and Caldwell Marks, manager.

One victory out of eleven games was the best the 1941-'42 Sewanee basketball team could accomplish. Poor as this record may be, several factors should be considered before passing judgment on what was a scrapping, above average ball club; certainly an important factor contributing to Sewanee's dismal season was the loss of last year's coach, Joel Eaves, who was called into the army with a reserve commission. Coach Eaves had succeeded in establishing a very effective and smooth working system, and this year's team was looking forward to utilizing the experience they had gained from playing several seasons under him. His successor, Coach Lincoln, worked hard to whip up a winning combination, but this being his first year with the squad was a severe handicap that casts no reflection on his ability; the squad was just never able to iron out all the rough spots in their play. Another hard felt loss was Gene Pierce, an outstanding guard on the 1940-'41 team, who did not return to school this year. On top of these setbacks Captain Wally Welch and Ross Apperson, the two first string guards, were called into the army in mid-season, and Bob Ames and George Eckles, important reserves, left school at the semester. With such odds against them the Tigers did remarkably well; they were never lacking in that famous "Sewanee spirit."

Sewanee opened the season on January 10, against David Lipscomb, the game being played on the Mountain. This was the seventh game for the Bisons, and their superior team work turned it into their sixth consecutive victory. The Tigers were plagued by very poor passwork and a fatally low percentage of shots made. It was a rough game with both Yochem and Wetzel fouling out for Sewanee. The zone defense used by the Purple proved very inadequate with the result that the visitors had many more scoring opportunities. Yochem tallied 14 points, carrying off high scoring honors for Sewanee.

The next game on the schedule was a home game with Vanderbilt; again the Tigers lost, this time by a 50-34 count. The first half was very close, but Sewanee was unable to keep up the pace after the intermission. Somewhat later on in the season, the Purple returned the Commodore visit with a game down in Nashville. Homer Dehoney, tall Vandy star, proved too much in this meeting, and Vanderbilt took an easy 50-20 win. Apperson, Welch, and Co-Captain Johnny Roberts looked good in these games but could not bring victory to the Tigers.

The Chattanooga game was by far the worst showing of the year for Coach Lincoln's quintet. In the game played down there Sewanee completely blew up; against a visibly inferior outfit the Sewanee team allowed itself to be outroughed by a Moccasin squad led by Eldridge and Phillips. The game was especially disappointing as the Purple had shown definite improvement every time out prior to this scrap. Apperson and Welch played fine defensive games but received little offensive support; Yochem was high with nine points.

Journeying down to Cookeville for a game with T. P. I. on January 17th, the Tigers were confident of victory but again failure to make baskets resulted in defeat. Although they were behind only 14-11 at the half and actually held the lead for a while at the start of the second half, the Tigers soon lapsed and T. P. I. went into high gear to win 34-20.

The Tigers returned to the Mountain, January 24th, for a game with Auburn, the first in a series of four home games. The end of the first half found Coach Lincoln's five very much in the game against the then Southeastern Conference leaders, trailing by a 15-12 margin, but the second half jinx soon struck, and the Plainsmen intercepted passes and looped in shots from all angles. The final score: 38-23. The passing of the Tigers was much improved in this game, and with a little luck on many rim shots, it could have been a very close battle. Games with Howard and Southwestern followed with Sewanee successfully defending their unvictorious record. These were Sewanee's seventh and eighth straight losses and marked a low point in spirit of both team members and team followers. Heartening, however, was Jack Wetzel, who came into form in these games, grabbing high scoring honors in both.

Just as it seemed that all hope was gone for a Sewanee basketball victory, the team finally snapped out of their slump against Southwestern and played the brand of ball they were capable of. It was the last intercollegiate contest in major sports that Sewanee will play on the Mountain for the duration, and "Sewanee was Right," trouncing the favored Memphis quintet 39-33. It was a close battle most of the way and the capacity crowd was on edge until the very last when the Purple's superiority steadily began to pull them farther ahead. Near the end of the game, star J. Roberts fouled out, and the Lynx crept to within three points of Sewanee, but then Welch and crew started popping away at the basket with deadly accuracy to relieve the threat. Outstanding was Captain Wally Welch who, in his last performance with the Tigers before being inducted into the army, played an inspiring game. Yochem contributed to Sewanee's elation by running circles around Kenny Holland, Southwestern's footflash who scored three touchdowns against the Tigers.

Losses to Murfreesboro State Teachers and Howard completed Sewanee's schedule. In the former game the Tigers offered little opposition to Murfreesboro's hot offense and could not generate any scoring punch with which to retaliate. The final game with Howard was played by the only five remaining varsity men, and they stayed in the entire game to turn in a rousing battle. Several times Sewanee grabbed the lead, but the very large court finally proved too much for a team without substitutions. Tony Diffenbaugh really got hot and looped 15 points; Yochem made a like amount.

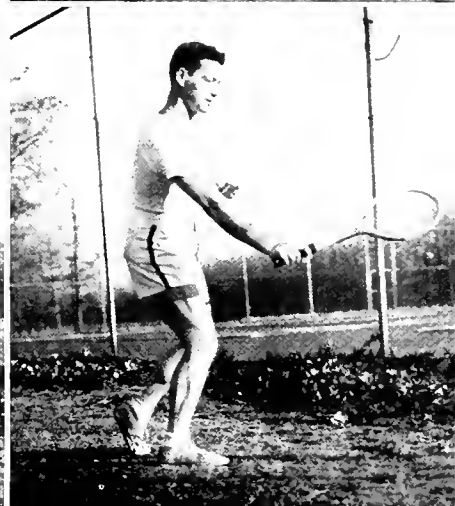

Varsity letters were awarded to the following men: Captain Welch, Co-Captain J. Roberts, G. Roberts, Wetzel, Yochem, Apperson, Ames, Diffenbaugh, and Eckles—the last Sewanee basketball men to earn an "S" for some years to come.

To the left, top to bottom: Yochem blocks a Vandy shot. Wetzel racks one up J. Roberts in under-basket action.

Already one of the most popular sports in Sewanee, tennis is destined to become even more popular in the future. An incentive for anyone to play is the imposing array of four of the South's finest tennis courts and the excellent condition in which these courts are kept.

Sparked by Trapier Jervey and supported by some promising Sophomore and Freshman material the Sewanee tennis team of 1942 promises to be a well-balanced, hard-hitting outfit. The greatest loss to the team this year will be future aviation cadet Charles Freer, number two man on the team and Jervey's ever dependable partner in the doubles matches. Incidentally, when Sewanee won the T. I. A. A. meet last spring these two boys constituted the formidable doubles team which copped the doubles championship; Jervey won the singles championship in the same meet and Freer was runner-up in the singles. That's a record hard to beat.

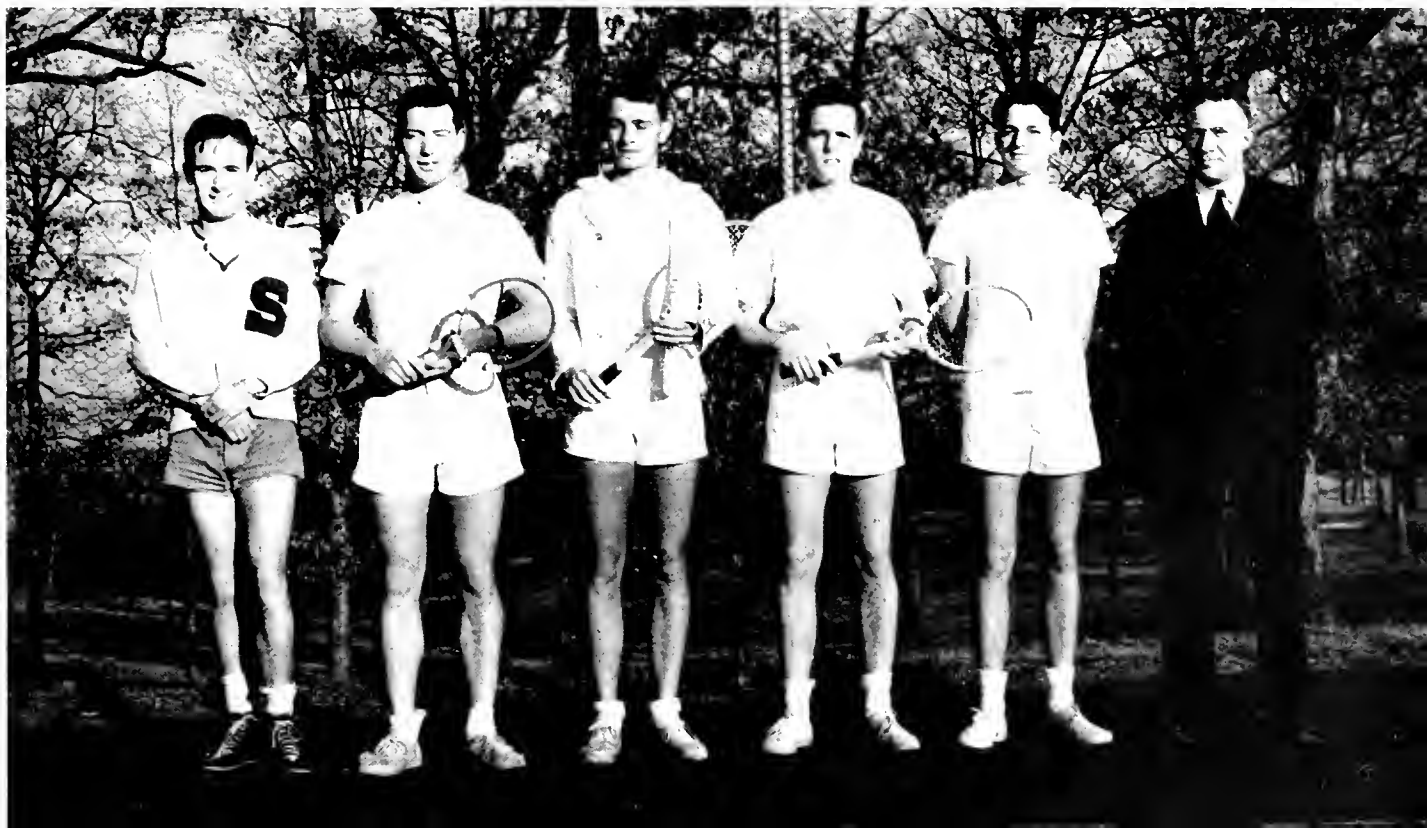

Coached by Dr. G. S. Bruton the team this year is composed of Capt. Trapier Jervey, Berkley Grimball, Charles Blakeslee, Winston Cameron, and several promising Freshmen.

Under the limited schedule of spring sports, golf will be cut down, but due to the successes of the golf teams for the past few years the greater part of the matches will be fulfilled. Last year the team was the most successful of the Mountain, winning five and losing only to Vanderbilt and Tennessee, defeating the former on the home course. Its record of wins on the Mountain has never been marred in the past two years.

The future is just as bright with three of last year's squad members returning and with a fine group of eligible freshmen seeking positions. Captain Alfred Sams is returning, as are Brooks Cotten and Jack Wetzel. This year's matches will be with Chattanooga, Vanderbilt, and Tennessee. With the return of these "Vets" it is believed the golf team will continue its good record.

TRACK

The track season of 1942 will be the first season that the track team has been under the able guidance of Professor Harris Moore. Mr. Moore succeeds Dr. David E. Frierson, who coached last year's track team, and is at present on active duty with the United States navy, as a lieutenant. Track was revived at the University last spring after it had been discontinued a year. Although the team last year did not win a meet, it provided a basis for the team of '42. This was due in a large extent to John Longnecker, who captained last year's squad and performed admirably on the cinder path.

It is around the veterans of the '41 team that the '42 team will have to be molded. From the team of the previous year there remain four lettermen: Frank Carter, David Hughes, George Peck, and Henry Seaman. Other members of the '41 thinly-clad are Frank Wicks, John Fort, Critch Judd, Ed Davidson. Carter appears to be the spark plug of the team. One of the fastest sprinters in the state, Carter was undefeated in the 220 during last spring, winning the event in four dual meets and copping it from Tennessee's Tucker by a hair breadth in the state meet. The Texas lad is plenty good in the century race also, and he does more than his share on the relay team. Hughes and Peck hail from the Keystone State. The former snagged a couple of firsts in the 440 in dual meets and placed in the state meet, and was also a member of the relay team. Peck alternated between the 440 and the half mile, and also ran the relay. Seaman, another Texan, walked off with the mile on several occasions last year and also performed consistently in the two mile. Critch Judd, the decathlon champ from Oak Park is plenty good on the hurdles and high jump. With a season's experience behind him, John Fort should be greatly improved on the high jump and two mile. Wicks looks like a good bet in the half mile, and Ed Davidson has been extending the length of his javelin throws. Joe Calder is putting in a strong bid for the dashes. Stanhope Elmore is the boy who supplies the squad with equipment. Two freshmen, Wally Wilson and Ken Brown, have been doing wonders on the hurdles. Brown also looms as a possibility for the pole vault. Harry Goellitz and Sam Grier appear to be the Tigers' choice in the discus and shot-put. Among other promising freshmen are Fuller, MacGowan, Nevins, Worrell, Elebash, Claypool, and Sullivan.

Dual meets scheduled for this season include Vanderbilt (away), T. P. I. (here), and South-western (here). The Tennessee Intercollegiate Track Meet will be held at Cookeville.

FOOTBALL

At the opening of school the freshmen football team numbered less than twenty men. After practicing for a month, the team opened against the Chatanooga Frosh there. The team played well but fell before too much man power. Coach Clark's yearlings next traveled to Cookeville to engage the T. P. I. freshmen; the Baby Tigers dropped a heartbreaker by a 7-6 count.

The Vanderbilt Freshmen, one of the best teams in the South, were entertained by the Frosh on the Mountain in the final fracas of the year. The frosh played brilliantly to hold the Commodore's eleven to a 21-0 score. Harold Belew played a sensational game for the Tigers and his 87-yard punt was the high light of the game. Walker, Pitts, and Brown look like good prospects.

BASKETBALL

Although the University's new financial program included the abolition of Freshman basketball before the season really started in order to cut down on expenses for the duration, the team continued to work out all season and was invaluable in affording opposition for the Varsity in practice sessions. In two early scrimmage games the Baby Tigers swamped St. Andrews, as Frank Norman hit the hoop for 18 points, and then they dropped a close one to S. M. A. The Freshmen were beginning to look pretty good when their games were cancelled, and it is probable they would have had a successful season. Normann, the best shot and ball handler on the squad, Callahan, an excellent guard, Wilson and Westfeldt, both good under the basket, were the backbone of the frosh five.

Now that intercollegiate athletics have been abolished for the duration, intramurals will assume increasing importance in the Sewanee program. Already Director Clark has taken steps to enlarge and improve the present plan, now one of the finest in the South. The University has a very extensive athletic plant, including two football fields, two gymnasiums, a nine-hole golf course, a fine indoor swimming pool, four tennis courts, two baseball diamonds, a quarter mile cinder track, and several handball, squash, and badminton courts. The present program includes competition in all sports, a handsome trophy being presented winners in each; at the end of each year a huge silver cup is awarded to the organization that has amassed the most points in all sports during the year. Of added interest is the rivalry between Sewanee and Vanderbilt intramural teams for the trophy awarded to the winner in each major sport in the inter-University series. A similar championship series has also been arranged with Birmingham-Southern, and other schools will be added to the list.

The intramural season was opened with the six-man touch football race. The Phi Delta's and S. A. E.'s early showed their supremacy, and each rolled through four games before meeting in what proved to be the deciding game of the race. The Phi's scored early on a pass from Cate to Yochem and held a 7-0 lead at half time. Two safeties brought the Sig Alpha's into the midst of the game, and with the score standing at 7-4, Dittenbaugh shot a pass to Sylvan who, with the aid of Elebash's blocking, scored the touchdown that won the game and the championship, 11-7. The Kappa Sig's placed third and the K. A.'s fourth.

The all-league team, as picked by team captains and league officials, included the following players: Ends, Alfred Sams (S. A. E.) and Frank Carter (K. S.); Center, Henry Prior (K. A.); Backs, Tony Dittenbaugh (S. A. E.), Jim Pate (P. D. T.), and Eldon Scott (P. D. T.).

In a hotly contested struggle the S. A. E.'s defeated the D. K. E.'s, the intramural winners at Vanderbilt. The game for the Sewanee-Vanderbilt trophy was played on Hardee field with the final score being 9-7. The Sig Alpha's scored in the first period on a 35-yard run by fleet-footed Dittenbaugh, but the Deke's tied it up in the next period, passing their way to a tally. The half ended with the score thus, 7-7. The final score of the game came on the first play of the second half; Dittenbaugh kicked off to the Deke's King, who fumbled the ball, and attempting to pick up the ball he stepped out of bounds behind his goal line, giving the S. A. E.'s an automatic safety. The rest of the game see-sawed up and down the field with neither team able to score.

The regular volleyball season ended in a three-way tie for first place between the Theologs, K. A.'s, and Kappa Sig's. In the playoffs for the title the Theologs defeated the Kappa Alpha's two games to one when Jardine, Lamar, Butler, and Jacobs turned on the heat to take two straight games, 15-9 and 16-14, after losing the first one, 15-12. The Theologs next took on the K. S.'s and again lost the first game as Collins and Carter sparked the Kappa Sig's to an easy 15-3 win. But the Preachers came back strong and swept the set and the championship, 15-7 and 15-9. In the second place playoffs the K. A.'s took two straight from the Kappa Sig crew, 15-3 and 15-7. The Sigma Nu's placed fourth in volleyball.

The all-league volleyball team as chosen by officials and team captains included: Spikers, Ben Cameron (K. A.), Joe Jardine (Theologs), and Frank Carter (K. S.); Setters, Joe Fuller (K. A.), Dave Collins (K. S.), and Woody Butler (Theologs). There is no series in volleyball between Sewanee and Vanderbilt.

An all-freshman Phi Delta Theta team proved to be too much for the other competitors in the basketball race, and they marched to nine consecutive victories to win the championship. Three of the Phi's first team, Westfeldt, Wilson, and Normann, played on Sewanee's frosh team before the sport was abolished, and this threesome was the backbone of the Phi's quintet. On March 5th, the Phi's travelled down to Nashville to play the Vandy champs, Beta Theta Pi, and were snowed under by a taller and more experienced team, 38-11. The team bounced back the following week, however, and defeated Birmingham-Southern in Ormond Simkins gym, 31-20.

All-league basketball selections were: First team: Frank Normann (P. D. T.) and Frank Carter (K. S.), forwards; Wallace Westfeldt (P. D. T.), center; Joe Fuller (K. A.) and Mel Goad (P. G. D.) guards; Second team: Wally Wilson (P. D. T.) and Al Sams (S. A. E.) forwards; Frank Walker (S. A. E.) center; Jim Cate (P. D. T.) and Bill Moise (P. G. D.) guards.

With eight fraternities, the Theologs, and the Outlaws entering fifty-three men, this year's intramural swimming meet was the most successful in the University's history. Six records fell as the S. A. E.'s amassed 40 1-3 points to 32 2-3 for the Phi's. The A. T. O.'s came in third with 25 points, and the Outlaws grabbed fourth with 20 points. Judd (Outlaws) shared individual high point honors with Hewson (A. T. O.). Between them they broke five records; Judd set new marks in the 25-yard dash, the 25-yard back stroke, and the 50-yard breast stroke, while Hewson toppled the 100-yard dash and 200-yard swim records. The S. A. E. 100-yard relay team, composed of Waller, Strother, Calder, and J. Smith, made the other new meet record.

The Phi Delta Theta's made a clean sweep of the handball contests as Pinky Greer won the singles, and he and Ed Davidson captured the doubles. Billy Coleman of the S. A. E.'s took the squash title by defeating Niel Platter, P. D. T., two games to one. Woody Butler took the badminton cup for the Theologs, defeating Westpheldt of the Phi Delta's.

The Sig Alph's literally walked away with the intramural track meet, totaling over a hundred points while the nearest competitor, the Phi's, were a good fifty points behind. The Kappa Sig's brought up third. Individual stars were Jim Pillow (P. D. T.), high jump and pole vault winner, Frank Carter (K. S.), winner of the dashes, and Wally Wilson (P. D. T.), who took the low and high hurdles.

Lord and Lady ★ HALIFAX

VISIT SEWANEE

The British Ambassador to the United States, Lord Halifax, and Lady Halifax visited the University this spring, and in a very beautiful chapel service, opened by an impressive academic, ecclesiastical, and military procession, he was presented with the Doctor of Civil Law Degree. Chancellor of Oxford University, Lord Halifax's visit symbolized the cultural and educational bond between our country and England.

Lord Halifax chats with Bishop Bland Mitchell of Arkansas, Bishop Capers, and Bishop Maxon of Tennessee.

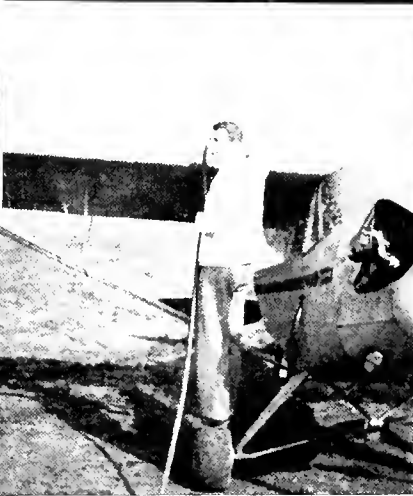

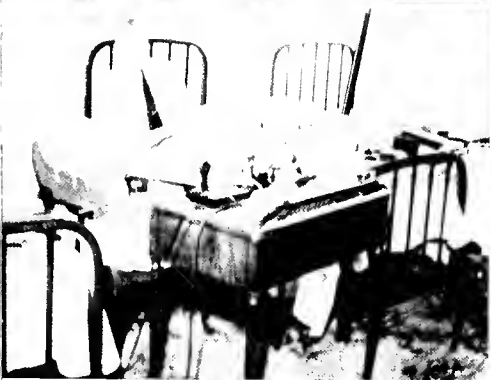

The vested choir leads the procession that included the Order of Gownsmen, University Cadet Corps, alumni, faculty, clergy, and many famous dignitaries.

Upon leaving the chapel, Dr. Guerry and Lord Halifax walk between the ranks of the University's newly-formed Cadet Corps.

The University of the South

What Sewanee Stands For . . .

The Education of the Whole Man—

His body, in a physical environment and training almost ideal.

His mind, through courses in a scientifically correct curriculum, and through contact with a faculty strong in scholarship and personality.

His character, through the constant influence of Christianity as expounded and exemplified in the life of the University community.

The Making of a Citizen—

In theory, through the influence of that ideal of patriotism which we call the Sewanee Spirit.

In practice, through the dynamic living as a citizen in a community of which the student body constitutes the citizenship.

Individuality, Originality, Initiative.

Taught to think independently, plan independently, but to act as a community member.

Ready to Face the World

★ ★ COME WHAT MAY. ★

CONFIDENCE is the heritage of youth it is also a fundamental requirement of business attained by long study, training and experience • We have enjoyed the confidence of yearbook Staffs throughout the country for over thirty years an accomplishment for which we are truly grateful and justly proud
